

JoAn Pickett-Majors

*Instruction...Inspiration...Motivation....*When most participants expect to get only one or two, JoAn has the rare ability to deliver all three with contagious enthusiasm.

A member of the National Speakers Association and the International Federation for Professional Speakers, JoAn Majors has been described as a team member who has temporarily left the office. Her highly sought after presentations are known for their authenticity, humor and engagement.

Mentored by entrepreneurial giants, marketing mavericks and leading educators in dentistry, her area of specialty is in working with teams from traditional industries---like banking, real estate, health care, education and her favorite, dentistry---to produce non-traditional transformation with profitable people skills. She has been involved in the dental industry for 25 years with a focus on implant and complete dentistry.

Her first book, Open the Door to Your Purpose in Implant Dentistry and companion training cards have assisted thousands of dental implant team members serve their patients with more influence and understanding of this phenomenal treatment. As a member of the Association of Dental Implant Auxiliaries, she is passionate about implant dentistry and the role the team member can have if they choose.

JoAn is the founder of Dentistry by Choice, a training LLC, author of Open the Door Series and happily married to a practicing dentist. She and her family reside in Texas. To learn more about JoAn visit www.dentistrybychoice.com or call 1-866-51-CHOICE.
